

It is nice to sit down to dinner with my husband and daughter and not be bothered by the telemarketers who are trying to sell us stuff that we can not afford in the first place. Do not change this law, please. Liz Dietzel